

Sun., Sept. 14th, 2025

Test on Literary Elements _____ / 10

A. Read each sentence. Then, fill in each blank with the most suitable word from the box below.

theme – plot – characters – setting – climax – fiction – nonfiction – resolution – conflict

1. The setting of the story describes where and when the events happen.
2. “Friends should help each other.” is an example of a theme.
3. The plot is all the main events that happen in the story.
4. The main problem that the characters face in the story is called the conflict.
5. The part of the plot in which the problem of the story is solved is the resolution.
6. A book that tells the story of Mary, a girl moving to a new school is fiction.

B. Read the passage carefully then answer the questions that follow. Write what you understand in your own words.

Long ago, in a small village, there were two neighbors, Rosa and Leo. Rosa had a big apple tree with many apples. Leo was a carpenter with wood and tools, but he had no food for his family.

One cold evening, Leo asked Rosa for apples. “I will share my apples,” Rosa said, “if you fix my broken fence.” The next day, Leo fixed the fence, and Rosa gave him baskets of apples.

That winter, Rosa’s fence stayed strong, and Leo’s family had enough to eat.

1. What is the setting of the story?

The story takes place long ago, in a small village.

2. Who are the two main characters?

The two main characters are Leo and Rosa.

3. Explain Leo’s conflict.

Leo had no food for his family.

4. What do you think the theme of this story is?

Sharing and helping others make life better.

(Any idea that highlights the importance of sharing and helping)