

Leaders in history

Word	Definition	Example Sentence	Part of Speech	Synonyms	Other Forms (Parts of Speech) assassinated	Killed suddenly and secretly, often for political reasons	The president was assassinated during the parade.	Verb (past tense)	murdered, executed, eliminated	Noun: assassination Noun: assassin founders	People who establish or start something (e.g., an organization, nation, or business)	The founders of the school wanted to provide quality education.	Noun (plural)	creators, originators, pioneers	Verb: found Noun (sing.): founder superintendent	A person who manages or oversees an organization, place, or activity	The superintendent of the school visited the classrooms today.	Noun	manager, director, overseer	Verb: superintend Noun: superintendence resistance	The act of fighting against something or refusing to accept it	The soldiers put up strong resistance against the enemy.	Noun	opposition, defiance, struggle	Verb: resist Adj: resistant extraordinary	Very unusual or remarkable	She showed extraordinary courage during the crisis.	Adjective	exceptional, amazing, remarkable	Adv: extraordinarily attitude	A settled way of thinking or feeling about something	His positive attitude helped him succeed.	Noun	outlook, mindset, approach	Adj: attitudinal commitment	A promise or firm decision to do something	The nurse showed commitment to helping her patients.	Noun	dedication, responsibility, obligation	Verb: commit Adj: committed role	The part someone plays in an activity, event, or organization	The teacher plays an important role in shaping students' lives.	Noun	function, duty, responsibility	Adj: role-playing (as compound)
concept	An abstract idea or general notion	The concept of freedom is important in every society.	Noun	idea, principle, notion	Adj: conceptual Adv: conceptually