

English
Department

Subject: First Writing Assessment Grade 5 _____

Name: _____

Date: October 5th, 2025

Time: 40 minutes

Read the instructions carefully.

- Any irrelevant writing will be given a ZERO / 10.
- Before you submit your writing, read what you wrote and edit your language. Make sure you used correct grammar, spelling, capitalization, and punctuation.
- Use your best handwriting.

Write a folktale that shows how sharing and helping others can make a big difference.

3 points	3 points	1 point	1 point	2 points	Total
The story includes the 5 Literary Elements (characters, setting, conflict, climax, resolution)	Simple Past Tense is used correctly throughout the story.	The story clearly teaches a moral	The story is well-organized . It's easy to follow, and has a clear beginning, middle, and end.	Sentences are mostly correct with proper punctuation and spelling	10
_____/3	_____/3	_____/1	_____/1	_____/2

➤ Before you start writing your folktale, take some time to plan your story.

Who are the characters? Where and when does your story happen? What problem does the main character face? What happens first, next, and last? Think about 3-5 major events. How is the problem solved?

Make sure the theme of sharing and helping others is clear in your story.

GOOD LUCK!