

dreaded – approach – exhausted – gratitude – grateful – neglected – remnants – fatigue
– fraying – aura – respond – response – confidence – confident –

1. The team's confidence was shaken after their first loss of the season.
2. She found remnants of her childhood toys in the attic.
3. She couldn't sleep the night before her presentation because she dreaded the thought of speaking in front of an audience.
4. She has an aura of positivity that makes her likeable.
5. They neglected the old house for years. It's showing signs of peeling paint, broken windows, and an overgrown garden.
6. After a long day at the construction site, he could feel the deep fatigue in his muscles.
7. After hours of non-stop studying for the final exams, she felt mentally and physically exhausted.
8. The pair of jeans I've had for years is starting to show signs of fraying around the pockets and hems.
9. His approach to solving the problem was creative and effective.
10. She showed her gratitude by cooking a delicious meal for her friends who helped her move into her new apartment.
11. She smiled in response to his kind words.