

Unit 2 – Five New Words at a Time – Vocabulary Test

_____ / 10

A. Read each sentence. Then, fill in each blank with the most suitable word from the list. _____/5 approach – remnants – respond – response – gratitude – grateful – neglect – fraying – dreaded – fatigue – resources – aura – confident – confidence – exhausted

1. There was an _____ of excitement in the air as the concert was about to begin.
2. With more practice, he became more _____ to speak in public without feeling nervous.
3. She _____ seeing the results of her medical tests.
4. After the earthquake, only a few _____ of the ancient castle remained standing.
5. The teacher was impressed by the student's _____ to a difficult math question.
6. She used all the available _____, including online tutorials and textbooks, to improve her math skills.
7. After a long day of hiking in the mountains, we were completely _____ and in need of a good night's sleep.
8. The edges of her favorite childhood blanket were _____, showing signs of wear and tear from years of use.
9. Her _____ to studying involved setting specific goals and creating a study schedule to stay organized.
10. I'm so _____ for the lessons I've learned from my mistakes.

B. Choose the correct Answer. _____/5

1. The _____ refers to the narrator, or person telling the story.
A. setting B. plot C. point of view D. characters
2. The sentence Mia went to the store can be changed into the first-person point of view by changing _____.
A. went to goes B. Mia to My sister
C. the to your D. Mia to Her
3. The sentence We had a good time can be changed into the third-person point of view by changing _____.
A. We to My friends B. had to have
C. We to They D. We to My friends and I
4. Which of these sentences is in the third-person point of view?
A. I'm going to see a movie tonight with Vera.
B. The boys didn't see the sleeping dog and almost tripped.
C. You wouldn't believe how much it snowed last night!
D. We are going to be late for school if we don't hurry.
5. Which of these sentences is in the first-person point of view?
A. Johnny was walking down the hall one day.
B. "You should take a rest", our coach said.
C. Jose wanted to buy a new shirt for the party.
D. Maria got her hair cut really short.