

Open-Book Comprehension Test on "Doctors Without Borders" pp.90-93

Student's Name: _____ Grade 5 _____ Date: Oct. 20th, 2025

1. How do you know that "Doctors Without Borders" is an informational text? Write two elements in your answer. (_____/2)

"Doctors Without Borders" is an informational text because it has captions, headings, and real photos.

2. What is Doctors Without Borders? (_____/1)

Doctors Without Borders is the name of a group of doctors who travel to help sick or hurt people around the world.

3. Complete the following chart. (_____/3)

Problem	Solution
Some countries do not have enough doctors or medical supplies when there is an emergency.	(p.90) Doctors Without Borders travel to these countries to help people and give medical care.
(p.91) Refugees sometimes don't have clean water that is safe for drinking.	Doctors bring clean drinking water to refugees and show them ways to clean water.
Some people lost their homes and did not have any supplies after the tsunami.	(p.92) The doctors gave people tents, clothing, and other supplies.

4. What do the following pronouns refer to? (_____/2)

they (p.92 line 5) people (...they did not get sick)

They (p.93 line 12) volunteers (They are courageous...)

5. Find a word on p.92 that means “people who are hurt or harmed by something”. victims (_____/1)

6. Critical Thinking: Do you think the volunteers in Doctors Without Borders are heroes? Explain your answer. (_____/1)

Yes, I think the volunteers are heroes because they are courageous, they help people in need, and they save lives.

Be the HERO
of your own story

Heroes
are normal people with big hearts