

Answers

1. Answer: Personal Narrative
2. Answer: First person
3. Answer: Feared
4. Answer: The narrator's mother (Tai-Chih)
5. Answer: It suggests that the mother is very protective and caring towards her children despite her fatigue.
6. Answer: The narrator likely feels anxious and fearful about school and learning due to not understanding and being laughed at.
7. Answer: The narrator's mother, Tai-Chih, worked part-time in a Chinese restaurant.
8. Answer: The narrator's family came to America in 1985.
9. Answer: The narrator attended a school in America (specific location not provided).
10. Answer: The class was overcrowded due to many foreign-born children needing support in learning English.
11. Answer: The narrator's mother worked from late afternoon till late at night.
12. Answer: The narrator describes their mother's daily routine as exhausting, as she wakes up early to cook breakfast for them despite her fatigue.