

A. Choose the correct Answer.

1. The people or animals involved in a story are called.

- A. plot B. characters C. caricatures D. symbols

2. The refers to the narrator, or person telling the story.

- A. setting B. imagery C. point of view D. conflict

3. The sentence (He went to the store.) can be changed into the first-person point of view by changing .

- A. went to goes B. He to You C. the to your D. He to I

4. The sentence (I had a hamburger.) can be changed into the third-person point of view by changing.

- A. a to my B. I to She C. had to have D. I to Me

5. Which of these sentences is in the third-person point of view?

- A. I'm going to see a movie tonight with Vera.
B. The boys didn't see the sleeping dog and almost tripped.
C. You wouldn't believe how much it snowed last night!
D. We are going to be late for school if we don't hurry.

6. Which of these sentences is in the first-person point of view?

- A. Johnny and I were walking down the hall one day.
B. You can make a necklace with beads and string.
C. Jose wanted to buy a new shirt for the party.
D. Maria got her hair cut really short.

B. Fill in the blank using the words from the box.

aura – approach – admirable - response – neglect – fraying – dread
--

1. I always dread the end of the semester when the final exams start.
2. The teacher didn't expect this quick response to her question.
3. Parents should not neglect their children.
4. She has an aura of positivity that makes her likeable.
5. This teacher is known for his interesting and effective approach in teaching science.
6. After hours of arguing, their friendship was fraying, but they both hoped it could be repaired with understanding.
7. Her admirable patience and kindness inspired everyone around her to act with more compassion.

C. Change the following sentences into the first-person point of view.

1. He finished his homework before dinner.

I finished my homework before dinner.

2. He forgot to bring his umbrella to school.

I forgot to bring my umbrella to school.

D. Change the following sentences into the third- person point of view.

1. I went to the market to buy some fruits.

He went to the market to buy some fruits. / She went to the market to buy some fruits.

2. I helped my mother prepare dinner.

He helped his mother prepare dinner. / She helped her mother prepare dinner.