Grade 4 – First Speaking Assessment

Dear all,

Your first speaking assessment will take place in the first session next week (21–25 September).

✦✦ Topic: Wild Animals

🕒 Time: 1 minute speech

✦ Reminder: Your speech should be organized, clear, and easy to follow.

Use these helpful vocabulary words we discussed in class in your speech:

1. Poachers – people who hunt or catch animals illegally.

◆ Sentence: Poachers hurt wild animals by taking them from their homes.

2. Adopt – to take care of an animal or pet as your own.

◆ Sentence: We can adopt animals from shelters to give them a safe home.

3. Endangered – animals that are in danger of disappearing.

◆ Sentence: Tigers are endangered because people cut down their forests.

4. Volunteers – people who help without getting paid.

◆ Sentence: Volunteers work in animal shelters to care for sick animals.

5. Extinct – when no animals of that kind are alive anymore.

◆ Sentence: Dinosaurs are extinct because they all died long ago.

6. Banned – not allowed.

◆ Sentence: Hunting endangered animals should be banned.

⊘ Do NOT prepare a PPT.

✍ After your presentation, the teacher will ask random questions about the topic to check your understanding.

You will be assessed on the following:

1. Vocabulary use
2. Speech organization
3. Sentence structure
4. Fluency
5. Body language

Good luck! ★
